MENU

Yakitori, Japanese rice crackers, edamame, sake, sake martinis, Japanese beer, green tea and our usual assortment of movie snacks and drinks.

An excerpt of Roger Ebert's review: “Princess Mononoke is a great film...It tells an epic story set in medieval Japan, at the dawn of the Iron Age, when some men still lived in harmony with nature and others were trying to tame and defeat it. It is not a simplistic tale of good and evil, but the story of how humans, forest animals and nature gods all fight for their share of the new emerging order. It is one of the most visually inventive films I have ever seen.”

We hope Film Society members plan to attend. We encourage non-members to come as well and pay an admission of $5 at the door. “Princess Mononoke” is rated PG-13. It is NOT a cartoon and is not recommended for young children, as it contains intense action and contextual violence.
